
God comes to Hagar, unasked, and again

Genesis 21:15 When the water in the skin was gone, she put the boy under one of the bushes.

¹⁶ Then she went off and sat down nearby, about a bowshot away, for she thought, "I cannot watch the boy die." And as she sat there nearby, she began to sob.

Genesis 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid; God has heard the boy crying as he lies there."

Genesis 21:18 Lift the boy up and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation."

¹⁹ Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰ God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became an archer.

²¹ While he was living in the Desert of Paran, his mother got a wife for him from Egypt.

Hagar, The Woman Who Wasn't There

Women of the Old Testament—part 4

Genesis 16; 21:8-21

May 29, 2016

Genesis 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar;

Genesis 16:2 ...so she (Sarai) said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant (Hagar); perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said.

Genesis 16:3 So after Abram had been living in Canaan ten years, Sarai his wife took her Egyptian maidservant Hagar and gave her to her husband to be his wife.

Genesis 16:4 He slept with Hagar, and she conceived. When she (Hagar) knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress (Sarah).

■ The disaster of getting your way

Genesis 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my servant in your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the LORD judge between you and me."

Genesis 16:6 "Your servant is in your hands," Abram said. "Do with her whatever you think best." Then Sarai mistreated

Hagar; so she fled from her.

God meets Hagar at her lowest point

■ Genesis 16:7 The angel of the LORD found Hagar near a spring in the desert; it was the spring that is beside the road to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 And he said, "Hagar, servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" "I'm running away from my mistress Sarai," she answered.

Genesis 16:9 Then the angel of the LORD told her, "Go back to your mistress and submit to her."¹⁰ The angel added, "I will so increase your descendants that they will be too numerous to count."

Genesis 16:11 The angel of the LORD also said to her: "You are now with child and you will have a son. You shall name him Ishmael, for the LORD has heard of your misery.

■ Genesis 16:12 He will be a wild donkey of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in hostility toward all his brothers."

Genesis 16:13 She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: "You are the God who sees me," for she said, "I have now seen the One who sees me."

Hosea 5:15 "Then I will go back to my place until they admit their guilt. And they will seek my face; in their misery they will earnestly seek me."

Genesis 16:14 That is why the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; it is still there, between Kadesh and Bered.

■ ¹⁵ So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

¹⁶ Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

Hagar hits bottom

■ Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast. ⁹ But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking, ¹⁰ and she said to Abraham, "Get rid of that slave woman and her son, for that slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac."

■ Genesis 21:11 The matter distressed Abraham greatly because it concerned his son.

¹² But God said to him, "Do not be so distressed about the boy and your maidservant. Listen to whatever Sarah tells you, because it is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned."

Genesis 21:13 I will make the son of the maidservant into a nation also, because he is your offspring."

■ Genesis 21:14 Early the next morning Abraham took some food and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar. He set them on her shoulders and then sent her off with the boy. She went on her way and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.
