

Remaking God in Your Image: Exodus 20:4–6

Sunday June 18th

Mark Jackson

“You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.”

We break this commandment whenever we define God in our heart as we want Him to be rather than believing what He reveals Himself to be.

It doesn't matter how we “like to see God;” God is who He is, and our opinions about what He should be are totally irrelevant.
